Marketing student at the Financial University. I specialise in market analysis, consumer behaviour and product positioning: surveys and in-depth interviews, segmentation, and turning data into recommendations I can present and defend.

PROJECT EXPERIENCE

Nerovill LLC · market & consumer research, rebranding

Research commissioned by the company: a survey of ~100 people and 7 in-depth interviews. Showed, with brand examples, that branding alone can make water from the same well differ in price by more than 2×.

Result: personally presented the rebranding recommendations; the client accepted all of them.

Aviasales · coursework, 2026 · top grade

Strategy for a new B2B line: PESTEL, SWOT and portfolio-matrix analysis, positioning and communication with corporate clients, a 6-month promotion plan, budget and KPI system. Built the financial case for its viability.

Financial figures are scenario estimates; the programme was not launched.

Basic apparel line · coursework, 2025 · top grade

Based on market analysis and Lime's practices, built a go-to-market model for 5 product categories: target audience, value proposition, range, pricing, sales channels and launch budget.

VTB Bank case championship · team project

In three days our team built a data model covering all of Moscow that identifies the best ATM locations, and pitched it to the bank's representatives.

Ya v Dele · mentor to two teams

Trained participants, set tasks and deadlines, guided projects and prepared reports. Both teams took their projects through to the final pitch. Earlier: participant in the "BEZ TABU" educational project.

SKILLS

Research and strategy. Market and competitor analysis, segmentation, surveys and in-depth interviews, primary and secondary data, positioning, SWOT / PEST, 4P / 7P.

People and decisions. Guiding teams, setting tasks and deadlines, reporting, presenting and defending results.

Visual presentation. Self-taught in design: presentations, interface concepts, logos and graphics.
